Land Appraisers!

Ridgeville Twp. Caucus.

The Democracy of Ridgeville township will meet in caucus at school house No. 5, on Saturday, November 2d, 1889, at 1 o'clock p. m., sharp, to place in nomination a candidate for Land Appraiser. By order of the Tr. Committee.

Election Day next Tuesday.

Plenty of Campbellites now.

Work for the entire Democratic county ticket.

Vote yourself and see that your Democratic neighbor votes.

Ohio's "Black Diamond" Governor will get beautifully left this year.

Vote for Groll for Treasurer.

The Republicans will slobber over you and get you to scratch, fellow Democrat. And if they get you to do so they will give you the laugh after election.

Democrats should always keep in mind the fact that a United States Senator is to be elected by the next general assembly, the members to which will be elected this fall.

The Illinois Senators are kicking against the treatment they are receiving from President Harrison, and threaten to be in open revolt against the administration when Congress meets.

Bro. Clement, of the German Democrat, says that Senator Geyer owes him two dollars upon subscription which he refuses to pay. A man who beats the printer is never fit to go to Columbus as a Senator. Geyer will be an ex-Senator after the 5th of November.

Zierolf is not only a farmer, but a good business man, one who manages his affairs well. He has served as Commissioner one term and has proved himself a man of excellent judgment. He will be re-elected by a large majority, but help to make it touch the 2,000 notch.

Vote for Hanna for Recorder.

Why any Republican should not vote for Governor Foraker is hard to understand. Toledo Commercial.

Do be a little consistent. It has only been a short time ago that you said if Foraker was nominated for a third term his throat would be cut from ear to ear.

Ohio has been divided for the census of 1880, and is divided into eight districts. Henry is in the first, which is composed of the following counties: Williams, Fulton, Lucas, Ottawa, Sandusky, Seneca, Crawford, Wyandot, Hancock, Allen, Van Wert, Paulding, Defiance, Henry, Wood and Putnam.

Hon. D. D. Donovan has made an exemplary representative, filling the responsible position with credit to himself, his party and his constituency. His duties at Columbus have been attended to faithfully, and the interests of his constituency have been his interests. He should be re-elected by a unanimous vote.

If every Democratic vote is cast on Tuesday next the State will be Democratic.

The Republican party won its victory in 1888 on the very ideas that are denounced by many Republicans as Tanterism. That party promised the soldiers the earth and now they dare not deliver the goods. Tanterism was simply carrying out these pledges regardless of consequences. It was a monster bid for the Presidency and not intended to be fulfilled by the politicians who control the party now in power.

Chas. N. Schwab has made a most excellent county surveyor for the past two years, and is entitled to the solid support of his party, which he will get no doubt. He is a young man of excellent character and habits and is worthy of the support of all voters. Mr. Schall for infirmity director, and Mr. Bitzer for coroner are worthy the support of every Democrat. In fact the ticket from top to bottom should be elected by a good round majority.

Vote for Groll for Treasurer.

Let Democrats, who believe in the principles of their party, stand by their colors at all times and all places. If our organization is to be kept strong and in tact we must stand shoulder to shoulder for our whole ticket. If you are tempted by the filthy lure of the enemy be true to your party and yourself. Don't allow any clamor to unjustly prejudice you against your own party nominees. Vote a clean ticket and you are all right.

A vote for Jas. W. Hanna, the Democratic candidate for county recorder, will not be thrown away, as Mr. Hanna has most excellent qualifications for the position. He was born and raised in this county, and although his parents were Republican he from his early childhood has taken a stand with the Democrats, believing the principles of Democracy were right as against those advocated by the Republican party. He is a consistent and working Democrat, and well worthy the support of every member of his party. A vote for Hanna is a guarantee that the recorder's office will remain in good hands.

The Republican papers are setting up quite a howl because the President of Harvard College is an outspoken Democrat, and that the colleges are turning out free traders. Well, we are not surprised at that. The Republican party can only hope for existence by ignorance and duplicity. Cut the negro vote off and the party would be overwhelmed in Ohio, as in most States. Education with a sense of justice makes every man a tariff reformer. Let him be a tariff reformer and he knows that other votes are as honorable.

Vote the whole Democratic ticket.

Election Day next Tuesday.

Send in the Returns.

We would ask some friend, it may be the central committeeman or any one interested, to send us the result of the election in his precinct or township as soon as known. Give the total vote of each candidate.

Democratic Headquarters.

Our friends will find Democratic Headquarters at the Probate Court office on election night, when the late-string will be out for all, and where election news will be read as it is taken from the wires.

Don't Trade.

The Republicans have already begun to approach Democrats with trades. "Vote for our candidate for Representative (or Senator or Governor, as the case may be) and I will vote for the Democratic candidate" for some small local office which the Democrats are sure to win anyway. It is a case of "heads I win, tails you lose" where the Republicans have everything to gain and nothing to lose. Democrats, beware! Don't trade!

Clerks of Election.

The enactment in regard to clerks at each election is as follows:

Sec. 2922 (a). In all public elections in townships not divided into election precincts there shall be two clerks, having the qualifications of electors therein, one of whom shall be the township clerk and the other shall be chosen as provided in section two thousand nine hundred and thirty-five, and he shall not be a member of the same political party as the township clerk. And in townships divided into election precincts there shall be two clerks in each precinct. The township clerk shall not be one of the clerks in the precinct in which he resides, and the other clerk shall be chosen as provided in section two thousand nine hundred and thirty-five; provided, that only one of the clerks so chosen in each precinct shall belong to the same political party as the township clerk, and in all cases the political party casting the next highest vote at the election to the dominant party in that township shall be represented.

Vote for Schwab for Surveyor.

OR.

Republican Slush.

The disreputable campaign carried on by the Napoleon Republican gang one and two years ago is only equalled by the ungentlemanly slush appearing in the Signal and its double concerning Mr. Groll, the Democratic candidate for county treasurer. Mr. Groll happens to be a German, which fact is a great sin in the eyes of these irresponsible and insulting Republican pimps and hangers-on who infest the county seat. Henry county has had some pretty good officials who came from the German element of the Democratic party, and to-day some of them are still in office, a credit to the county, the party and themselves.

This attack upon Mr. Groll is the more reprehensible because he has always been looked upon as one of the honorable and upright citizens of the county by all parties. And to-day no man in the county stands higher in the estimation of the people in his locality, and all concede that he has the necessary qualifications for the position of treasurer. These qualifications are coupled with probity and honesty of purpose, which is more than can be said of his traducers.

We would caution Democrats against this gang and would remind them of their dirty actions one and two years ago, when nothing was too vile or mean to accuse Democrats of. No good Democrat can do otherwise than vote a solid ticket.

Vote for Hanna for Recorder.

600,000 New Federal Office Holders.

The election bill introduced in the Senate by John Sherman, last winter, if adopted, will revolutionize this country, and give the President of the United States much power as the Czar of Russia. While we might remain nominally a Republic, we would all the same be a Monarchy. The last vestige of Home Rule would be taken from the people. Liberty would be throttled—a free government would end on this continent after its hundred years of experiment.

John Sherman says his bill will be made a caucus measure, and the party lash applied to adopt it.

It provides—1st, for State Boards of Elections, appointed by the President. 2d, Boards of Election for Congressional Districts. 3d, County Boards. 4th, Township Boards. These Boards have the power of appointing U. S. Marshals, who are clothed with authority of arresting on sight, and without a warrant. The tenure of office of this immense horde of Federal office holders is the pleasure of the President. Should one make the least show of fairness they could be removed instantly, and servile tools appointed to their place.

Thus would the whole election machinery pass from the people, and even from the control of the States. The elections would no more be a meeting of Sovereigns to choose public servants, but the Emperor permitting the people to record his sovereign will. This would no longer be a government of the people, by the people and for the people, but the registration of a nation of serfs.

Such a proposition, during the first half century of our existence as a nation, would have produced a revolution, and its author would have been more detested than Aaron Burr. But the strides toward Imperial power have been so gradual that people have grown accustomed to it, and it scarcely raises a ripple, except among the more thoughtful, who see in such measures, the certain downfall of the Republic. In the early days of the Republic the man who had the temerity to propose such a scheme would have been forced to flee the country to save his life—the party even under suspicion of entertaining such views would have been an object for public scorn and contempt. Can it be that patriotism is as low an abject that party which fosters such treason to free institutions can have such following that its author can remain in the United States Senate, and be the leader in his party?

Let freedom, who do not believe that the king is any purer than his subjects, but that the people are capable of self government, record their protest by voting the Democratic ticket on November 5th—NEXT TUESDAY.

Vote for Bitzer for Coroner.

In the use of "pasters" by voters wishing to vote for a candidate not on their regular party ticket it must be borne in mind that only the name of the candidate on the paster is to be printed in red ink. The designation of the office, above the name, must be ink like the rest of the regular ticket.

A PRIZE BANNER

To Be Given to the Township or Precinct Showing the Biggest Democratic Gain.

Democrats All Over the County Should Strive for the Banner.

Feeling that this is a Democratic year and realizing that if every Democrat does his duty, with the assistance of the dissatisfied Republicans who will undoubtedly do theirs, the people of Ohio will be able this year to rid themselves of Forakerism, the Henry County Democratic Executive Committee, as an additional incentive to the Democrats of Henry county to get out the full Democratic vote, has decided to offer and will give a handsome banner to the township or precinct showing the largest per cent. of Democratic gain over the vote cast for Thomas E. Powell for Governor in 1887. In that year the vote was very light and the opportunities for a big increase over that year are good in every township.

To illustrate what can be done with the proper effort, the following table showing the vote cast for Governor in 1887 and for President in 1888 is appended:

Townships or Precincts.	Cleveland	Powell
Bartlow	242	165
Damasus	222	189
Flatrock	251	216
Freedom	189	169
Harrison	173	144
Liberty-East	140	136
Liberty-West	144	135
Marion	319	233
Monroe	335	276
Napoleon	654	509
Pleasant-New B.	264	174
Pleasant-Holgate	196	141
Richfield	124	90
Ridgeville	142	119
Washington	179	163
Total	3583	2919

Thus if the vote is no larger than last year, as will be seen from the above figures, there is good hope for every township and precinct, and the figures show that there are Democrats enough in the county to make a good showing. As the ratio will be figured per centum it gives the small townships and precincts an equal chance with the larger ones, and is perfectly fair to all. DEM. EX. COM.

Vote for Bitzer for Coroner.

Latest news from China confirm the report that the Yellow River has again burst its banks and flooded the whole province of Shantung. The damage is enormous and nearly irreparable. The river during these inundations is charged with silt, and the deposit of this on the ground turns the most fertile soil into a desert. It is estimated that it will take at least fifty years to render this province fit for agricultural purposes, assuming that there is not another inundation before that time. This makes the third province ruined by inundations in three successive years. It seems probable that these overflows will result in the formation of great lakes in Shantung and other provinces, and the permanent depopulation of a large part of the population. Lack of engineering skill and money prevents the diking of this river and the artificial deepening of its channel, which are necessary to prevent these periodical overflows.

Fellow Democrat, see that your Democratic neighbor gets to the polls on Tuesday next.

The most serious charge made during the campaign is that of the Black Diamond Railroad fraud. Gov. Foraker has been accused of acting as the attorney of that corporation, which bears the reputation of being nothing less than a swindle. It is open to charge that thousands of dollars have been taken from people by false representations, and by the influence of the Governor's name. Evidence has been given to show that these charges are true, but no explanation has come from the Republican side. The latter circumstances argues badly for the Governor. If he is innocent, the accusation ought to be denied and the whole matter in its entirety given to the public. As it stands now, the silence of the Republican State Committee and the Republican press show that something is wrong.

Why is it that Gov. Foraker's connection with the notorious Boon swindle, if he has any connection with it, is not explained to the public that the truth may be plainly known?

Why is it that the Republican State Committee with its boiler-plate bureau does not send a full history of the case broadcast among the people?

Why is this matter kept in the dark?

Vote the whole Democratic ticket.

The Democratic State Committee has got out an unique campaign ticket. It is a rule a foot long, made of thick paper, with the names and fraction of each inch marked. Upon one side is printed "Home Rule." For Governor James E. Campbell, "Tariff Reform." Upon the face of the rule is printed: "Home rule for Ireland; we demand it for Ohio," this latter from the platform adopted at the Dayton State Convention.

Go the polls early and work for the Democratic ticket until the sun goes down.

Vote for Campbell and the whole ticket.

WE WILL WIN

If We Get Out the Whole Democratic Vote.

There is one thing of the utmost importance in the present campaign, and that is, get out the full Democratic vote. If we do that on election day, the victory will be ours, just as sure as election day comes. That is the sum and substance of the present political campaign in the State of Ohio. The Republican party are demoralized all along the line. Every move that they have made in the present campaign has been a false move. Every blow they have struck at our party and our gallant standard bearer has proved to be a boomerang and has recoiled with deadly effect upon themselves. Not one leader of the Republican party is in sympathy with Foraker or really desires his election. The ranks and file of the Republican party do not like Foraker and they will not endorse third-termism. It will be impossible for the Republican party to poll its full vote for Foraker and for what he represents in Ohio this fall. Consequently, all the Democratic party needs to do to win, is to get out its own vote on election day. Pass the word along the line, fellow Democrats. Tell your Democratic friends and neighbors to pay no attention to Republican blowing and boasting, but to come out and vote the Democratic ticket, every one, in his precinct or township, on election day. Our committee is not holding meetings, but it is working quietly and effectively all the time to get out the full Democratic vote on election day. Don't say that it is no use; that we cannot win anyhow, as some easily discouraged ones who are not well posted on the situation might say. It is of use to come out and vote, and we can win and will win in next November, if every Democrat does his duty. The skies are rosy with the bright prospects of Democratic victory. Let every Democrat make that victory sure, by coming out and voting.

Let no Democrat stay away from the polls next Tuesday.

The Tariff and the Professional Man.

LIBERTY CENTER, O., Oct. 30th, 1889.

Is it possible for a man to be taxed without him knowing it? "The tariff does not hurt me that I know of," is what a professional man once said to the undersigned.

When we began the practice of medicine eight years ago, we paid $2.50 an ounce for quinine. When in 1883 Congress began to talk about removing the duty from quinine, a great lamentation, weeping, wailing and gnashing of teeth was heard from a poor little proper in Philadelphia by the name of Weightman, who is reported to be worth $20,000,000.

Powers & Weightman were the only manufacturing chemists in the United States at that time who manufactured quinine, and they employed 400 hands. Their outcry was that if the tariff was taken off of quinine it would ruin their business. Congress did reduce the tariff on quinine and about that time the great chemical works of Powers & Weightman was destroyed by fire. The undersigned went to Adrian, Mich., to purchase some drugs a few days after that fire, and there was not a drugstore in the city that would sell one ounce of quinine. They held it expecting a corner on that commodity. But was Mr. Weightman with his $20,000,000 ruined by the reduction of the tariff on quinine in addition to the fire? Not a bit of it! They rebuilt their works, and instead of 400 hands which they had employed previous to the fire, they afterwards employed 600; and three other establishments within the United States began the manufacture of quinine, and to-day that article is exported, over 1,000 hands are employed by the various firms that manufacture quinine, and our druggists can retail it for less than $1 per ounce and realize a fair profit.

We would willingly stake our reputation that if the tariff was taken off the raw material which enters into the manufactured article, such as alcohol and cinchona bark, that every family in Henry county could have on hand a good supply of quinine at a cost of less than 25 cents per ounce. Nearly all drugs are heavily taxed. The tax on morphine is $1 per ounce.

The statute reads thus: "On all pills, powders, tinctures, lozenges, syrups, cordials, bitters, anodynes, tonics, plasters, drops, waters, essences, spirits, oils, liniments, pastes, or other medicinal preparations used as remedies or specifics for any disease or affections whatever, affecting the human or animal bodies, fifty per centum ad valorem." That is, fifty cents on every dollar's worth. We presume that there is not a reader of the Northwest who does not realize the fact that if a man is so fortunate as to earn a dollar, that it will bring just so much more comfort to his family if it is judiciously expended. But how many readers of this paper or any other paper, who is so highly favored with a dollar, are cognizant of the fact that instead of its being worth 100 cents to him, he can buy under the present tariff laws only 52 1/2 cents worth of comforts and necessities for his wife and little ones and that the very nature of the existing tariff laws compels him to pay an average of 47 1/2 cents out of every dollar of his earnings to some other party, who seems to be the very elect and favored ones of the land—also of a protective tariff.

Next week we will follow this professional man a little farther.

The Republicans are making a dirty attack upon Mr. Groll. Democrats, resent it by voting an unscratched ticket.

DAMNABLE!

Democrats of Henry Co. Read!

YOU ARE CALLED BALLOT-BOX STUFFERS!

By Hired Republican Pimps!

A more damnable and outrageous attack was never perpetrated upon an honest community than the following from the pen of a hired Republican pimp, whose business it is to go over the State and make up lying reports for his libelous sheet. Hear the dirty pup, who writes to the Cincinnati Times-Star, one of the most unscrupulous Republican papers in Ohio:

Some days ago I visited several Democratic counties in the western part of the State. An old politician said to me: "Do you know that ballot-box stuffing is carried on at every important election by the Democrats in this and several adjoining counties that are reliably and heavily Democratic?" "No," said I. "This is news to me. Can you be more specific?"

"Yes, sir," was the answer. "I can give you places and times. We will take Henry county for an example. Napoleon is the county seat, and the population of Henry is not dense. It is Democratic, and in many of the rural townships, which are remote from the channels of commerce and intercourse, deeds are and can be done which will not bear scrutiny. It is the custom in some of the remote Democratic townships to have all the candidates, or at least four candidates, for trustee Democratic. Then the defeated ones having the most votes are judges of election. This plan puts the elections under Democratic control and the judges and clerks can do what they like. What they do is to determine how much they want to increase the vote. Then they add that number of names to the tally sheets and during the day slip in the proper number of votes to correspond. This has been done in several precincts in Henry, Anguize, Mercer, Defiance and Crawford counties. I know it to be a fact and am making no irresponsible and reckless charge. A study of the returns will reveal it in some places. The county chairmen promise the State committee a certain Democratic gain, and they have upon several occasions made this gain by stuffing the ballot-box. There are a lot of unprincipled and barbarous scoundrels in the counties I have named who are without respect for the law and who will not allow it to interfere with Democratic success."

Democrats of Henry county, decent people of the northwest, what do you think of the party advocating such politics? Rise up in your might on Tuesday next and denounce the base slander by giving an increased Democratic vote and majority. Comment from us is unnecessary. Words fail to express our contempt for the party guilty of doing such a base act as sending out such an outrageous report. The Toledo Bee, commenting upon the outrage, says:

"When a Cincinnati Republican newspaper permitted a ruthless correspondent to attack the honesty and integrity of Henry county Democrats and asserted that the crime of ballot-box stuffing had been resorted to in that county, and also in Anguize, Defiance and Mercer counties, it was guilty of gross outrage, only excusable, if at all, upon the plea of ignorance of the situation. But when the Blade of this city, which knows better, copies without comment the article accusing the Democrats of Henry county with changing tally sheets and making the returns show a variance of hundreds of votes from the true count, it slanders as honest people as ever lived in this northwestern section of Ohio, a county the natural trade of which is tributary to Toledo. The rural population of all these counties is very like, and both political parties are honest. They are not ballot-box stuffers or tally sheet manipulators. They are honest and unscrupulous correspondents to good salaries by attacking the opposite party in these excellent counties, but what good can come from endorsing such falsehoods here at home is past comprehension. It is decidedly 'off politics.'"

Democrats, do your duty on Tuesday next. Do not leave a vote at home.

Republican Inconsistency.

Some two years ago D. W. Freese, the present Mayor of Napoleon, and now the Republican candidate for County Treasurer, hypocritically offered for the special purpose of frustrating the character and denouncing as incompetent Mr. Daniel Hartnett, the then Democratic candidate for county Auditor, and who has just been appointed to the vacancy existing upon the city council by Mr. Freese. This action of our Republican Mayor, the man who is now the Republican candidate for treasurer, looks a little queer and inconsistent, and we would enquire what has brought about such a change of heart in Mr. Freese? Was he mistaken in what he said concerning Mr. Hartnett two years ago, was he lying or was it all Republican buncombe? It certainly must have been the former, for he would not think of appointing a rasal and an incompetent man to the vacancy upon the council. Notwithstanding Mr. Freese to the contrary, we believed two years ago in the fitness and competency of Mr. Hartnett, and it is a mystery to us now that our Republican Mayor hit upon so good a selection for councilman. But Republican ways are queer things to a Democrat, and while they may think them all right, to us they look very much like pure cussedness and double distilled inconsistency.

As two years ago, Mr. Freese is again traveling over the county going from house to house, begging Democratic votes and bewailing the incompetency of Mr. Groll. Now if he lied before, and his actions show that he did, is it not possible that he is lying concerning Mr. Groll?

A well-known congressman was asked by a reporter, during the course of a half-hour's chat, if a politician should marry. "That is the very thing he has got to do," was the reply. "No man can hope to fill one of the higher offices successfully without the aid of a wife. Take John A. Logan, for instance. He was one of these good hearted, clever sort of fellows, but he didn't know anything. His wife did. She was full of social magnetism that attracts. She was up on every point of diplomacy. Her information was thorough, broad, and at ready command. Logan's political success was more his wife's doing than his own. Harrison is the same way. All that austerity of demeanor which characterizes him in his official relations wears off in his wife's presence, and he becomes the most genial of men. Blaine is an exception. He has the social attractiveness in himself. Yes, sir, the young politician must have a wife. She will save him from more expenses than when he has only the expenses of one to pay, and, besides she will prove the best political ally in a thousand emergencies."

Election Tuesday next. It is a duty every Democrat owes to his party to go to the polls himself and to see that his Democratic neighbor is there.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, causing distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful attention.

After Eating and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet efficiently. It tones the stomach, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, banishes headache, and refreshes the mind.

Sick Headache. "I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, and did me little good. After eating I would have a faint or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble was aggravated by my business, painting. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acted gently, yet efficiently. It tones the stomach, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, banishes headache, and refreshes the mind."
